CONTACT September 2017

How could it possibly be September already!? Recently I turned the page in my calendar to schedule something; I was overcome with a feeling as though I was walking down a dark street at night and suddenly heard quickening footsteps behind me. You know what I mean, don't you? You walk faster and faster, only whoever is there is gaining on you. The weeks are already beginning to fill up this fall. How could that be?

Fortunately, years ago I adopted one of your mantras. Whenever I begin to give in to that panicked feeling I hear Victoria Robertson in my ear. Those of you who know Victoria well probably know what I mean. Victoria, who teaches yoga, is apt to say to herself or anyone else who has that "deer in the headlights" look, "Remember to breathe."

And so, as the quickened pace of the fall resumes at UPC...church school, two worship services, committees gearing back up, nominations for new officers, youth groups, small groups, another round of visitors in hospitality hall, the budget process, etc, etc, etc., not to mention ways we may become involved in response to the devastating flood in Texas and all that happens in your lives outside of UPC, remember to breathe. It's amazing how much it will help you keep things in perspective. Everything we do, and I do mean EVERYTHING is ultimately about living and sharing the good news of Christ, the grace of Christ, the love of God. And none of that is like a stranger in the dark sneaking up on you. It is more joining others in what they are working to accomplish and that partnership somehow making it doable. It is more like a friend hoping just to walk with you a while. And even when it is a stranger at your back, we've been reminded, particularly this year, that the stranger is often an angel in disguise, Christ in a stranger's guise.

So, friends, if you turn the page on this month's Contact and the calendar makes you break out in a sweat, stop for a moment. Breathe. We are in this together and have each other's backs.

May the grace of God be quick on our heels and out in front too,

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Become a UPC Reading Friend at Park Elementary We Need YOU!

Are you looking for fulfilling ways to connect to your Baton Rouge community? Please join UPC members who are each reading a few hours a month with an eager young student at our partner school, Park Elementary, through the Everybody Reads program of Volunteers in Public Schools. Training sessions have already started for this fall (<http://vipsbr.org/everybody-reads-training-registration/>). Please call Karen Foote, 387-2594, for help signing up and more info on the UPC Reading Friends.

Help Recruit Volunteers to Rebuild

Do you have a phone, a few minutes, and some good, old-fashioned passion for helping? We need you to make phone calls to recruit volunteers to help some of the 11,000 families still living in gutted homes in our region to rebuild. You will be provided a call list, a script to help you navigate the conversations, and the satisfaction of helping from the comfort of your own home. Initial calls will be made to groups that previously volunteered with the Presbytery's Katrina rebuild, Project Homecoming, so you are reaching out to a receptive audience. If you are interested, please contact Christina Draka, aka "Construction Goddess," at 225-685-7708 or christina@pbysouthla.org.

A Green Walk

Sundays after 11:00 a.m. worship @ UPC in the Library

Using a prepared study guide, we will discuss how we can join in solidarity with all who are seeking ways to live sustainably and faithfully in the midst of global warming and other threats to our environment. As Pope Francis has said, "Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience." What personal decisions can we make in our daily lives that will have a meaningful impact?

Group Leaders: Lori Tucker and Jim Wilcox

Group Spiritual Direction

Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. @ UPC

(will break for Taize services)

Join us as we engage in a process of listening for God called Group Spiritual Direction. Guided each week by a series of questions for examining our lives and our experiences of God in them, participants will commit to brief times of individual reflection each day (remember, grace abounds) and then join together to share and to listen to what others hear in your reflections. We will create a sacred and confidential circle of support and growth while gaining tools for ongoing reflection after the small group is over. Group is limited in number, please contact Patti regarding space.

Group Leader: Patti Snyder

Bible Brews

Thursdays @ 5:30 p.m., Corporate Brew and Draft (2531 Citiplace Ct)

"Be Honest, Be Humble, Be Hospitable." These are the three rules of Bible Brews, our unconventional Bible study. The Bible can be challenging at times, yet in our wrestling to understand, we can find new truth that speaks to our souls. Each week we'll spend time unpacking and discussing upcoming Sunday lectionary Scripture texts. Drinking beer or wine is a welcome part of the experience but definitely not a requirement. Snacks are shared for all.

Group Leaders: Mike Watson and Logan Wiedenfeld

The logo for UKIRK Presbyterian Campus Ministry features the letters 'UKIRK' in a large, bold, purple font. A white arrow points upwards from the letter 'U'. Below the logo is a block of text: 'Are you a student (undergrad, grad, PhD, etc)? Are you seeking a way to get more deeply connected to a church community? We'd love to meet you! THANK YOU LOIS!

As you may have heard, Lois Kuyper-Rushing, who has served as UPC's Director of Music for the past 16 years, has "retired" in order to focus her attention on her responsibilities at LSU and on her GRANDCHILDREN! Her service to UPC in this role has shaped our ministry in so many ways. Please make a point to offer her a word of thanks. Don't worry; as a member of UPC, she will still be around and active in the life of the church.

Dear Friends,

I am writing to tell you that earlier this month I submitted my resignation as Director of Music to Patti, Cordell (Chair of Personnel), and Leslie (Chair of Worship). This was an agonizing decision for me, one that took months as I thought and prayed about it, counseling with Patti, family members and friends for guidance and support.

I thank each of you for the opportunity to lead you in song within worship for the last sixteen years, I will cherish my time with you. I am committed to University Presbyterian Church and I look forward to finding new ways to serve and experience fellowship within UPC.

I am certain that this position will attract someone with lots of energy and new ideas, and I look forward to hearing you as you continue your ministry of music at University Presbyterian Church.

Go with God,
Lois Kuyper-Rushing
