From My Window

This is the time that I am most aware of the mismatch of the church year and the calendar year. Because Christianity was the dominant religion when the United States was founded, the rhythms of our life culturally are fairly well matched to the rhythms of the church year - but not right now.

Right now, culturally and calendar-ly (I know that's not a word - welcome to having me as a pastor) we are winding down and wrapping up:

December is the end of the year;
Year-end sales for all sorts of things will be advertised soon;
Days are shorter and we head indoors earlier.

And yet, for Christians, the year is just beginning:

Advent is the start of the church year;
Our stories in scripture begin again and we look at them with new eyes;
The birth of Christ - new life - is our closest and coming celebration.

It's a bit of a time smash - beginnings and endings are all laid over one another at the moment.

My family is feeling that time smash particularly strongly right now:

We are ending one journey and beginning a new one;
We are preparing to move to a new house by packing up our old one;
We are eating last meals from favorite spots (take-out, don't worry) and wondering where we'll become new regulars;
We are saying good-bye to one community and wondering how we safely say hello in a new one.

We are going and coming.
We all are.

So if, at the moment, you're not sure whether you're up or down, heads or tails, in or out, topsy or turvy, ending or beginning - that's probably just about right, and you're not alone. We're certainly there with you, and we're taking comfort in the promise that God is too. An alpha and omega, first and last, everywhere and nowhere, human and divine, three and one kind of God can manage the complications of a beginning and ending time smash, and I'm deeply grateful for that.

Richard, Nora, and I look forward to being in Baton Rouge. We look forward to meeting you all whenever and however we are able to do so. We look forward to hearing your stories and your restaurant recommendations (still take-out). We look forward to learning how to pronounce the street names and figuring out just how many times one street can change names. And we look forward to learning how to navigate this ending and beginning with you.

Bendiciones (Blessings) -

Next Steps for Our New Pastor

from the Pastor Nominating Committee

The Pastor Nominating Committee is excited to welcome our new co-pastor, Mamie Broadhurst, soon, and we hope you are too! We wanted to share a reminder of the next steps in this process.

- Mamie will be accepted into the Presbytery of South Louisiana.
- There will be an installation service, where she will be officially installed as our co-pastor.
- She will sign a covenant with the congregation, similar to Patti's covenant with the congregation.

Mamie will begin doing planning work during the month of December, and her official start date is January 1.

The congregation will also need to vote to change Patti's call to that of a co-pastor. This meeting will be announced once it is scheduled.

Thank you all for your patience during this process, and we look forward to stepping into the future of UPC with our two co-pastors!

Hope for the Holidays

The Christmas season is here! In spite of Covid-19, UPC and the Mission and Peacemaking Committee, in cooperation with the Presbyterian Children's Home and Services, will again conduct our annual project to buy Christmas gifts of local children. This year, because of Covid, we will conduct Hope for the Holidays online.

To select a child to shop for, go to the following website: <https://www.signup-genius.com/go/4090F4BAEAB22A2FD0-christmas>

There you will find a list of available children, their gender, and age. Once you make your selection, click on the email link for either Lorinda Sealey or Jim Hanifen to tell them who you've selected. They will then send you a list of suggested gifts that the children's parents have provided. Then go shopping! Details on how and where to return your wrapped gifts will be sent in another email once those details have been worked out.

The deadline for sign-up is December 13. The deadline for drop-off is December 15.

Thanks for participating in this, our 30th year, of Hope for the Holidays!

Thank You!

Choir Masks

Hooray for Helping Hands sewists, who made singers masks for the choir. They are comfortable and roomy and great for singing! THANK YOU Barbara Hoffman, who coordinated the effort, Beverly Smiley, Bizza Britton, Mary Michael, and Anne Maverick.

600 Masks

Thanks to the efforts of Bizza Britton, Peggy Carroll, Barbara Hoffman, Julie Launey, Mary Mikell, Peggy Reilly, Karen Paterson, Beverly Jones, Sydney McGraw, Kathy Poche, Patti Snyder, Linda Walker, and Amy Vidrine, Helping Hands made over 600 cloth masks for Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center amidst Covid19. Ramping up in early April to meet this community need, and continuing through August 15, kits of materials were assembled weekly, distributed contact-free from Barbara's front porch, collected and delivered with help from Joyce Moreland and Frances Sullivan-Gonzalez. Currently Helping Hands is making 25 singers' masks for the UPC choir. Under Covid19 restrictions, preparations and sewing took place in individual homes. We look forward to the time when we may once again gather in the Zoom for fellowship as we use our hands and hearts to care for others.

Poinsettia Project

Since we have no UPC sanctuary to decorate this Christmas, the Committee on Faith Formation will deliver poinsettias to our church family to decorate your home and to remind you that we are all connected throughout this holiday season and beyond. If you would like to contribute to the project, please send your check to the church and indicate it is for the "Poinsettia Project" in the memo line.

IN MEMORIAM

Mary Timmons, who died on November 26.

Advent and Christmas at UPC

Advent, the season of preparation for Christ's birth, begins this year on Sunday, November 29. Each Sunday morning in Advent we will virtually gather, light the Advent candles symbolizing one of the Christian themes relating to the coming of Christ into the world – hope, peace, joy and love, hear the Word proclaimed, and lift our prayers for each other and the world.

This year our members and friends are also encouraged to develop a brief daily (or occasional, if daily seems out of reach) practice of worship at home. You may wish to develop your own practice or join with others in using “Discerning God’s kairos in the midst of our daily chronos” a free devotional resource emailed to you each week. We hear often these days that we are living through unprecedented times. Our experience of time has been altered in recent months. Our routines and rhythms, milestones and rituals, are upended. As we enter the liturgical season of Advent, when we are to eagerly prepare for the birth of Jesus Christ and also anticipate his return, how will we mark this time? What will we do to be good stewards of our time? We will explore being aware of God’s presence in the moment even as we anticipate Jesus’ incarnation. These devotions will seek to help us recognize God’s kairos time within and working through our challenging chronos time.

Education

The Music of Advent

David Walters, leader

Sundays at 9:30 a.m. on Zoom every Sunday in Advent

During Sunday School in Advent, we will be exploring several larger musical works that tell the Christmas story - Missa puer natus est by Thomas Tallis, The Messiah by George Frideric Handel, The Christmas Oratorio by Charles-Camille Saint-Saëns, and Die Weihnachtsgeschichte by Hugo Distler. This will not only be a musical tour through the ages, but also an exploration of how these different composers addressed the coming birth of Jesus specifically. Join us for some lively discussion and some truly excellent music! <https://lsu.zoom.us/j/95282554072>

The Christmas Story Pageant

December 13 - 3:00 p.m.

Join us to hear The Christmas Story come to life in the UPC Parking Lot on December 13th from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. “Journey to Bethlehem” will have eight stations. As each family unit travels from one station to the next they will hear the Christmas Story as told by people who were there. Everyone will be expected to wear masks and stay socially distanced.

Fellowship

CHRISTMAS TREE DECORATING IN THE COURTYARD

December 6-13

Families and individuals are invited to bring an ornament and help decorate our outdoor Christmas tree.

The tree will be set up near the entrance to the church courtyard and you may come at any time starting on December 6 to hang your ornament. Your ornament may show something you are especially thankful for this holiday season or you may bring any ornament of your choosing, handmade or bought. Because we are unable to display our beautiful chrismon ornaments on this tree, you are invited to consider making a chrismon for the outside tree. (See page 8 for more information on chrismons) Snap a picture and post to the UPC Facebook page as a way to celebrate this season together!

Day School

UPC Day School earns spot on Louisiana Honor Roll

Congratulations to our UPC Day School for once again earning a spot on the Louisiana Department of Education's Honor Roll as a result of high performance in the 2019-2020 school year, which is determined by classroom observation. The Day School's performance rating remains at the High Proficiency level. The next and final level up is the Excellent level, which the school is striving for.

Our Day School's outstanding reputation will work to our advantage when the economy starts to rebound, and demand for day care increases. But right now, attendance at the Day School remains at about 51% of capacity and will probably remain that way for a while. It may be well into 2021 before the Day School gets back to 95% capacity, which is our traditional goal.

Session Highlights

In November the Session considered several items relating to the arrival of our new co-pastor, Mamie Broadhurst. One big change that church members will notice is that Patti's office will soon be moved to the present library space, right opposite the office now used by interim pastoral associate Betsy Irvine. The library will be where Patti's office is.

The session approved several events for the holiday season, taking care to provide for physical distancing during the pandemic. Called meetings of the session to review requests for the use of our church facilities occur twice a month or as needed. Such requests must conform to the guidelines for safe facilities use approved last month. Those guidelines may be found on Realm under the group University Presbyterian Church -> Files or by contacting the church office.

Mission & Peacemaking

Outreach to St. Anthony's Home

Social distancing and other restrictions in response to the COVID 19 Pandemic have created many challenges to in-person interactions with agencies UPC serves, including St. Anthony's Home. Sponsored by Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center, St. Anthony's Home is an assisted living residence for people requiring support as a result of disabilities associated with HIV/ AIDS. St. Anthony's Home has been in operation for 23 years. Over the past 15 years or so, UPC has supported this program through a budget line item and by sponsoring various outreach programs such as local fishing trips and picnics, restaurant and movie outings for residents and UPC members, and by providing seasonal decorations.

This year has been different. To prevent COVID-19 infection among its residents, all outings have been cancelled and inside visitors are not currently allowed at St. Anthony's; this means no interaction with volunteers, family or friends. After consulting with St. Anthony's director and social worker about the best way to let the residents know that they are not forgotten, members of the Mission and Peacemaking (M&P) Committee decided that a treat of a non-institutional take-out lunch delivered to St. Anthony's would provide a welcome change in their routine menu, and a holiday decorations craft project would be a fun activity for the residents.

This year's outreach to St. Anthony's is truly a UPC-wide effort. On November 10, Karen Foote and Mike Olinde delivered 20 take out lunches from Jason's Deli to St. Anthony's residents and staff on behalf of UPC. Also delivered to each resident with personal greetings from members of the M&P Committee were fabric postcards made by UPC's Circle and Helping Hands and purchased as a fundraiser for Huntington Disease Society of America. In early December, M&P will deliver designs, supplies and instructions for making holiday ornaments as part of the Faith Formation Committee's Christmas craft project. Our overarching message to St. Anthony's residents and staff is "We're thinking of you, you are not forgotten, UPC cares".

POT & PANS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

If you shop at Albertson's, please collect the current Master Chef stickers awarded for your purchases. Bizza Britton is collecting the stickers to trade in for as many pots & pans as possible, between now and January 26. International students have limited resources to set up housekeeping. They can borrow items from loaner closet for small fee, and when they leave, turn items back in for small refund. It really helps them get settled while at LSU. Let's help! There will be small container marked MASTER CHEF STICKERS in mailbox closet/ or mail to 1222 Kimbro Dr 70808 or call/text Bizza for pickup: 225.456.4568.

Mike Olinde and Dorothy Williams, Social Worker at St. Anthony's

Thank You!

We appreciate your generous contribution to the Peace and Global Witness Offering. This year's offering total was $970. This amount exceeds last year's offering of $801. As is customary, 50% of this offering goes to PCUSA, 25% goes to the Presbytery of South Louisiana, and the remaining 25% goes to a local benevolence, which this year will be IRIS Domestic Violence Center of Baton Rouge. We are pleased to contribute to this worthwhile cause. The Pandemic, has created increased stressors, which historically have been shown to lead to an increase in family violence and domestic abuse. This small contribution is in addition to our annual contribution of $1000. Thanks again for your generosity.

NONPERISHABLE FOOD ITEMS NEEDED!

The LSU Food Pantry offers prepackaged bags of food for students to pick up. To do so, the LSU Food Pantry needs your help. We'll collect non-perishable food items at the church every Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. until further notice. There is a bin inside the door closest to the church office where you can leave your donations. Especially needed are protein items (beans, tuna, chicken, and meat sauce), vegetables, and cereals. Please no sweets and no pet food!

David Walters, leader

Sundays at 9:30 a.m. on Zoom every Sunday in Advent

During Sunday School in Advent, we will be exploring several larger musical works that tell the Christmas story - Missa puer natus est by Thomas Tallis, The Messiah by George Frideric Handel, The Christmas Oratorio by Charles-Camille Saint-Saëns, and Die Weihnachtsgeschichte by Hugo Distler. This will not only be a musical tour through the ages, but also an exploration of how these different composers addressed the coming birth of Jesus specifically. Join us for some lively discussion and some truly excellent music! <https://lsu.zoom.us/j/95282554072>

Feasting on the Word- Adult Bible Study

Rotating leaders

Sundays at 9:30 a.m. on Zoom (ongoing)

For each lectionary text, participants will find brief essays and discussions concerning the biblical texts. One review states, "A very helpful resource for those who use the lectionary in their weekly church services. I love that each passage is broken into theological perspective, pastoral perspective, exegetical perspective and homiletical perspectives. Having each perspective side by side discussing the passage for the week is very helpful."

The process is guided and requires no experience. We share a contemplative/prayerful practice that includes time for individual reflection and group sharing. Please contact Patti Snyder for class login information.*

A Chrismon is a monogram of Christ. All the designs of Chrismon ornaments are symbols for Christ which have been passed down through the centuries of Christian history. All Chrismons are made in combinations of white and gold. White, the liturgical color for Christmas, refers to our Lord's purity and perfection; gold represents the Lord's majesty and glory. At the top of the tree is the Moravian Star, first made in the Moravian settlement at Niesky, Germany, about 1850, a reminder of the star that led the Wise Men to Bethlehem. It also symbolizes the Christ Child of whom the Old Testament prophesied, "A star shall come out of Jacob" (Numbers 24:17). The Risen Christ likewise proclaimed himself as "the root and offspring of David, and the bright and morning star" (Revelation 23:16).

1st Sunday of Advent: HOPE

Sun of Righteousness: An Old Testament prophetic symbol based on Malachi 4:2, "But for you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings." In order to identify the sun as a Christ symbol, a Christ monogram has been placed in the center.

Six Pointed Star: Based on an Old Testament prophecy from Numbers 24:17, "A star shall come out of Jacob..." this star appears in many forms. One form is made by combining the Greek letter Iota (I) which is the first letter of Jesus, and Chi (X), the letter for Christ. The other is the Jewish Star, also known as the Creator's Star, created by two triangles. It represents that Jesus was born into Judaism, the six days of Creation, and the Trinity.

Serpent on Tau Cross: Prefiguration of the sacrifice on the cross (John 3:14).

Anchor Cross (Cross of Hope): This Child, the hope of the world (Hebrews 6:19).

2nd Sunday of Advent: PEACE

Chi Rho: The most widely known Chrismon in the combination of the first two letters in the Greek form of Christ, Chi (X) and Rho (P). Another name for it is Pax, which is Latin for peace. Sometimes it is shown with the Alpha and the Omega, the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. Jesus said "I am the Alpha and the Omega" (Revelation 22:12).

3rd Sunday of Advent: JOY

Latin Cross: Long upright; most widely used form of the cross among Christians.

Celtic Cross: Came from the Isle of Iano; plain cross with circle of everlasting life.

Cross Potent: Also known as the Jerusalem Cross or Crusader's Cross; usually has four small crosses between the arms, the five crosses symbolizing the five wounds of our Lord.

4th Sunday of Advent: LOVE

Lamb: A scriptural symbol for Christ, Lamb of God (John 1:29 and Revelation 21:22). The standing lamb bearing the cross banner of victory signifies the resurrection.

Rose: Messianic promise, the Messiah. Also, our Lord's virgin mother Mary; His human birth or humanity.

Butterfly: Our Lord's Resurrection; Resurrection of those who die in Christ (1 Corinthians 15:20-23).

Cross Triumphant: (Of Victory); Triumph of the Lord over earthly sin. Christ glorified.
