From My Window

Reconnecting

After over a year being physically apart, we're all trying to figure out how to reconnect - with family, with friends, and with our church community. Interestingly, the word religion is believed to have come from the Latin, religare, meaning to "bind" or "reconnect." Religare is about mending what has been broken, recovering what has been mislaid, and reconnecting that which is frayed.

The other day I was reading an article by Diana Butler-Bass asking the question - what is the future of religion post-pandemic? Her response,

"Well, it depends. It depends if we continue to insist on the other definition of religion – as obligation to a particular order of things (like doctrine, polity, or moral action – a "bounden duty"). If nothing else, the pandemic has revealed that particular orders of things can be upset, overturned by the most unanticipated of things. If religion is about maintaining a certain order of liturgy, dogma, or practice, well, then, we can consider religion one more pandemic loss.

If we think of religion in terms of religare, however, the task of the post-pandemic church – the work of finding, repairing, and relocating – is clear. We must reconnect ourselves and others with time, history, physicality, and relationships. In this sense, the future of religion has never been brighter – our lost world needs finding. Pandemic dislocation calls for guides and weavers of wisdom. We don't need to return to the old ways, we need to be relocated. We need to find a new place, a new home in a disrupted world.

And at the very heart of finding our lost selves is relocating our hearts in and with God."

If you are interested in re-locating yourself through re-connecting with others, in finding the heart of God within yourself and others, let's find a time to get you in a conversation with others at UPC who are trying to do that too. There is a journey beyond the pandemic, and we will find the way a step at a time. We haven't been to this particular future before. And we will need one another to get there. UPC, let's reconnect.

Online Meditation Room

Welcome to UPC's new virtual meditation room! This is a site you can go to whenever you want to immerse yourself in peace, calm, and focus.

How do I find it?

Click on https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/e/2PACX-1vS7Vno1cyHWSFsBZjcp3_Hdf-0M5ag4QsAgjVMMmBan4CC2FI6U-IRN1vGhpJgFthVj18QPXiS1-zAREs/pub?start=false&loop=false∓delayms=3000&slide=id.p&slide=id.p

How do I use it?

Click on the different items to see what they do! You will find videos, coloring books, a labyrinth, online Bible apps, a chair yoga video, and instructions on candle gazing meditation. Almost every item in the room is clickable. Click around and enjoy the resources that have been pulled together for you!

Are there rules?

The beauty of an online meditation room is it is never closed or crowded, and there's never a dress code! Use as few or as many of the resources in the room as you like. The point is to help relieve stress and worry, not add to it.

Come back as often as you like. You're always welcome here!

Summer Giving

Life slows down in the summer, especially in a university town, where residents are often away on vacations. Despite the traditional rainy weather, there are often prolonged dry spells, and at UPC pledges often dry up during the long, lazy vacation days. Please don't let your pledges dry up and be forgotten this summer. Before you leave town - or even if you're staying put - check into bank drafts and automatic checks to keep your pledges up to date. And remember, it's never too late to make a pledge to our annual campaign!

Mission & Peacemaking

Sign Up to Serve Lunch at the Holy Grill

Members of UPC are scheduled to serve lunch at the Holy Grill during the week of June 7 – 11. The Holy Grill is located at Cadillac St. Park (BREC), 6117 Cadillac St., Zion City. We have been asked to re-strict our volunteer teams to 2-3 persons per shift; therefore, we have created a sign-up form on the SignUpGenius website with three slots for each day we will be serving. You may access the form at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090f4baeab22a2fd0-holy>. Follow the instructions to sign up for one of the days assigned to UPC. You need not notify any one of date you selected. When you sign up, an automatic notification with your name and the date you've signed up to serve will be sent to the creator of the page. You may contact Lorinda Sealey (josefina.sealey@gmail.com) if you have any questions.

Network for Dismantling Racism

The Synod of the Sun sponsors a working group: Network for Dismantling Racism. This network is made up of representatives from across the Synod and has worked hard over the last 14 months to develop a library of resources (video, audio, curriculum and webinars) to help local congregations teach and speak about dismantling racism. Members of UPC are invited to visit the website (www.n4dr.org) and explore the many materials we have gathered in this effort. Of particular note are the resources collected to remember and teach about the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre. For a flyer with all three events: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/28m7rvr0mqxejn5/N4DR%20PDF%20TRM%20flyer.pdf?dl=0> Tulsa Race Massacre Commemoration events only: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/dv9m-hyasabsnp8r/Imagine%20Tulsa%202021%20Flyer%20Final.pdf?dl=0>

Néviton Barros graduating from LSU with a DMA with major in choir conducting and minor in vocal pedagogy. His future plans are to get a college teaching position.

Addie Brown, granddaughter of Betty Silvey, graduated from St Louis University on 20th May and will go on to grad school there with the eventual career as a Physician's Assistant. At present in addition to her studies, she works as a medical scribe in the ER for one of the St Louis hospitals and also is an EMT.

Riley Brown, grandson of Betty Silvey, graduated from Lee/Liberty Magnet High School. He was one of the athletes honored at The Advocates 35th year Star of Stars virtual banquet at the end of May. These athletes (one boy and one girl) are selected for their excellence in 15 individual sports by the Louisiana High School Athletic Association. Riley was the Capital City Swim League's top boy's swimmer for a second straight year. He has received a four year swim scholarship at University of West Virginia and will major in Finance.

Milo Cibelli, grandson of Betty Armstron, graduates from High School at Garfield High on June 15 and is moving back to Baton Rouge from Seattle WA with his mom, Rachel, at the end of June.

Tabitha Marie Lewis graduated from Baton Rouge Magnet High School. She will be attending Loyola New Orleans for college and will major in Commercial Music Industry.

April Whitting graduated from Dutchtown High School and will begin LSU in the fall studying Pre Athletic Training.

THIS IS THE MOMENT YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR!

Yes, you've got it, we are going back to in person worship! Don't mark your calendars quite yet but be ready. Make sure you read all of your UPC emails and check our Facebook page regularly for updates, but it's happening! At their last meeting the Session approved a recommendation by the Space Use Task Force to return to in person worship as early as June.

Actually we are "returning" to what is called hybrid worship. That means that those who for any number of reasons are not ready or able to gather in person will be able to join in on our usual Facebook worship live feed each Sunday morning. You can learn more about the rationale and details by reading the Task Force report by following the link on our website (coming soon), but here are a few highlights:

- Masks required.
- Yes, there will be bulletins.
- Fellowship time following worship will be outside.
- No reservations necessary.

- No congregational singing, but we will have our usual summer special music guests.
- No specific attendance limitations but, of course, we will respect each other when it comes to comfort levels with social distancing. (Think of it as a chance to really pay attention to one another and to indicate our own needs.)

We are still working out details of communion, a nursery, technology and a few other things, so it won't be the first Sunday in June and we'll continue to shift what we do and how we do it, but you can almost hold your breath until at least many of us are gathered in our beautiful light-filled sanctuary!

Spiritual Practice: Imagination

Imagination is a spiritual practice. When we're able to think outside the box, we can imagine a world where anything is possible. The Bible is full of visionaries and dreamers.

Memory Verse: Your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Acts 2:17 (NRSV)

Nurture your family's sense of imagination with these ideas:

- Write letters to God
- Create art that demonstrates how you feel about God or how you see God at work in your life. Paint, draw, or make something out of modeling clay.
- Lay on your back in the grass and take a look at the clouds. What do you see?
- Look into the night sky and make up your own constellations.
- Write your own song or poem about God and share with your family.
- Make up a story and act it out. Or, act out your favorite Bible story. Create a set or props for your story to make it extra special.
- Who do you know who has a great imagination? What do you enjoy about their imagination?
- Volunteer to create art for or with someone who could use extra beauty in their life

Faith Practice Spotlight: Dream Journal

It's fun to keep a dream journal. Decorate an ordinary notebook to keep by the side of your bed. First thing in the morning, when you wake up, write down your dreams. What might your dreams be telling you? Share your dreams with your family if you'd like.

LINK LOVE

Some fun, funny, inspirational, or thought-provoking links for you this month.

- Ever witnessed a moment where racial (or any kind of) bias collided with harassment of an individual? Didn't know what to do? Read about the 5D's and get some strategies for how to do some bystander intervention. <https://www.ihollaback.org/bystander-resources/>
- Conservation dogs? Yes! These dogs sniff out invasive species and endangered animals. Biologists can't spot them. Technology doesn't detect them. But nothing escapes The Nose. - <https://bit.ly/3hlxKay>
- You might not be able to walk and chew gum at the same time, but you could probably walk and pray at the same time! If you're not sure what to say/do, this link has a sample prayer walk you could take with you and do anytime. - <https://episcopalcolorado.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/Individual-Prayer-Walk.pdf>
- 32,000 dominos in an incredibly complex design made by Lily Hevesh, a 22 year old domino master! Beware, you could go down an internet rabbit hole watching this... <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=FWgH0hXZKrE>
- WARNING - this song starts with one swear word, but don't let that stop you! The overall song is one that will lift your spirits. The lyrics are captioned, and you may find it helps you "get up" and eagerly anticipate what's ahead on particularly grey and cloudy days. - <https://youtu.be/RIXp5jyNhuM>

Deacons: Margaret Bach, Ellen Morgan, Karen Paterson, Carolin Purser, Linda Walker, Mary Wardlaw

Elders: Rick Bowles, Griff Campbell, Rosa Campbell, Melanie Driscoll, Jerry Kennedy, Gary Meise, Diana Reynolds, Lynne Wallace*

The co-moderators and elders thanked outgoing deacons and elders for their service.

Thank you, UPC!!

The UPC Presbyterian Women (PW) “Cupcakes in the Courtyard” was held on Saturday, May 8th to celebrate PCUSA PW Annual Birthday Offering. It was a wonderful time of “in person” sharing of cupcakes, laughter, hugs, and joy with our UPC family. The Birthday Offering, Least Coin Offering, and an abundance of items for Michael Terry and other Louisiana Military personnel stationed overseas was collected. An colorful assortment of PW Helping Hands projects was also displayed. We were able to honor our Day School staff during Teacher Appreciation Week with plenty of leftover cupcakes!

Around 40 UPC members attended and generously donated over $1400 to the Birthday Offering mission projects. Jars and bags of coins were donated to the Least Coin Offering.

UPC PW will resume meeting, hopefully in person, in September 2021. Our 2021-22 Bible Study will be “What My Grandmother Taught Me – Learning from the Women in Matthew’s Genealogy of Jesus”. Helping Hands (an active arm of UPC-PW) will resume meetings as soon as UPC policies on COVID restrictions are settled and indicate safety for all.

For more information, contact Peggy Carroll or Julie Launey, PW co-moderators-2021-2022.
