Along the Way

Since the beginning of this year, there has been an onslaught of bad news and bad bills at both the state and national level. Sometimes it all feels like a firehose of meanness, which can threaten to overwhelm us and keep us from taking action. For that reason, it is important to find ways to counteract the bad news to keep from despairing.

Rev. Nadia Bolz-Weber is a Lutheran pastor who has written several books and writes reflections online through Substack – a place where writers and creators can publish their work with a subscription format. In March she published a post attempting to remind herself (and others) of good things that are still happening in the midst of...everything. I share it with you here (you can find her Substack in "Link Love") and add my own happenings in hopes that you will also add yours – whether in person or on our Facebook Group page as you travel this summer.

"Yesterday on my walk I saw tiny new buds on this tree I've passed each day of Winter, and below it, as if they were a team, the green of new tulips. And I thought, 'Spring is still happening'. Then I thought, 'Gladness is still happening', and 'The love Eric and I share is still happening' and 'Cookies are still happening'.

And then I thought I'd start this thread so you can add to my list. Name what, even though so much is being taken away, is still happening...."

Crawfish boils are still happening...
Neighbors being neighborly is still happening...
Teen laughter is still happening...

Bendiciones,

Mamie

Swim parties are still happening...
Shared ministry is still happening...
Political protest is still happening...
Ridiculous dogs are still happening...

Reading church newsletters and responding... is it still happening?

Art Guild

Have you appreciated the Easter installation this year? Do you think it sounds interesting to wonder together about how we can add to/transform/alter the sanctuary (in temporary ways) to enhance people's experience of worship through visual art? Have you always wanted to try your hand at making a banner? Is there a new craft project that has captured your imagination? Do you just like hanging out with people and getting to put ideas into motion? Contact Mamie or Caralyn and let them know this has piqued your curiosity, and we'll see what happens from there!

PCUSA Pentecost Offering

The Pentecost Offering supports ministries with children, youth, and young adults in our community, across our nation, and around the world. Nationally your offering will go to help support the year of service offered to those who join the Young Adult Volunteer \(YAV\) Program, help kids attend the Presbyterian Youth Triennium, and offer support to children through the Educate and Child, Transform the World Initiative to ensure equitable, accessible, quality public education.

This year the portion of our offering that stays local (40%) will be donated to our partner LORI (Louisiana Organization for Refugees and Immigrants) for their Summer Enrichment Camp - a vibrant, multi-week program that blends academic enrichment with wellness, creativity, and cultural exploration. Contributing to the Pentecost Offering is another way to continue supporting children, youth, and young adults both here and beyond.

Mission and Peacemaking

Thank you UPC!

Mission and Peacemaking thanks you for your generous donations to the Mother's Day Bailout through the YWCA Community Bail Fund. The YWCA's legal services team provided the following update for us (which was also shared in worship on Mother's Day):

"Thank you again to UPC your commitment this Mother's Day. With your donation we have secured the release of Ms. F.M. who has been incarcerated at the jail since April. She was booked on one count of theft of a motor vehicle and is accused of having taken a family friend's vehicle to try to locate her children's father. The vehicle was returned to the family friend. Without your donation, she would still be in jail, because days after she was arrested, her mother passed away suddenly. Her mother was her rock, and without her, the client stayed in jail. Because of her incarceration, she missed her mother's funeral. Because of your members, she is spending Mother's Day with her daughters, and the YWCA will continue to work with her in the coming days and weeks to set up her Medicaid and other supports that she lost once in custody. Additionally, our LPC (licensed professional counselor) on staff has been lined up to help with grief counseling since she still hasn't been able to process the loss of her mom."

UPC Volunteers Visit ICE Detention Center

On Saturday, May 10, Mary Mikell, Kate Midkiff, Christine Kooi and Julie Hoffman of Unified Jewish Congregation of Baton Rouge visited migrant women held in detention at an ICE facility in Basile, Louisiana. We did so under the auspices of Louisiana Advocates for Immigrants in Detention (LA AID), a non-profit that works out of Shreveport. There are nine such ICE facilities in the state, run by private firms, housing about 7000 detainees. They are hard places, surrounded by high fences topped with concertina wire. We were only allowed to go in with our driver's licenses and some money to buy the women snacks from the vending machines. Visitors are only permitted on the weekends, and visits may last only one hour.

For all the women we spoke with, the stress and uncertainty of their circumstances were clearly wearing them down.

All the employees we dealt with were pleasant and professional. The center was clean and well kept. But it's not home, and it's not freedom.

These people need to know that they are not forgotten, that we see them as fellow human beings, and that we care. It's the bare minimum. If you are interested in visiting detainees in Louisiana or volunteering in other ways, visit <https://laaid.org/> for more information. They will happily guide you and facilitate the process. You can also talk with Mary, Kate and Christine about their experience.

Little Food Pantry Announcement

Summer is here and rising temperatures make it a challenge to safely store food in our small pantry, particularly canned goods, which can spoil in the heat. At this time, we kindly request donations of hygiene items such as soap, shampoo, deodorant, and toothpaste, as well as women's products, sunscreen, mosquito repellent, and similar items. Donations can be put directly in the pantry.

FORMATION

AT HOME

As we are all trying to figure out the ways to live our faith in public, part of that includes the ways we engage our families, our children and grandchildren, in doing the same. The article below offers a lovely reflection about one man's decision to take his daughter to a recent political rally.

Do justice, love mercy, bring the stuffed tiger

by Andrew Taylor-Troutman, Presbyterian Outlook (April 9, 2025)

Why do you take a seven-year-old to a political rally? One reason is that she is too young to stay at home alone. Another reason is that she loves art projects, so she helps make your posters. Of course, the prospect excites her. She marches around the house, waving her sign and chanting, "Fight for women! Have hope!"

Still another reason to take a seven-year-old to the rally is that the children are our future. A tariff is another word for tax, and the children will ultimately pay, just like they will for the massive tax cuts for the super wealthy that drive our national debt to astronomical numbers. Meanwhile, 40% of all children nationwide are covered by Medicaid, and one of every four kids in your county is food insecure, meaning they will suffer even more from cuts to SNAP and WIC programs. Their learning will suffer as a result of less funding for their schools and teachers. Their lives are more at risk because of less regulation of pollution in the land, skies, rivers and seas. Taking a child to a rally or protest may be the best way to remember who we fight for.

An ancient rabbi, who was no stranger to a protest and a parade in the state capital (Luke 19:28-40), commanded that everyone emulate a child's faith. Jesus could be a bit cryptic. Maybe he was referring to a child's capacity to trust or their ability to exist in the moment or that a group of them will gallop in circles in front of a legislative building like a herd of wild ponies. Maybe Jesus meant that we are to serve with our energy, intelligence, imagination and love to make our world better for all children. Perhaps he meant to kindle a belief in our cynical hearts that we are stronger together and doing the right thing matters in ways beyond our kith and kin and even beyond our wildest ken.

Yet another reason to take a seven-year-old to a political rally is that she will insist on bringing her stuffed tiger, and she will demand that you carry said tiger on your head. You will comply, and dozens upon dozens of strangers will smile at your peculiar hat. You will realize that, while the issues are serious as hell, joy offers a glimpse of heaven.

WELCOME

BATON ROUGE PRIDE

Saturday, June 28, 2025 • Raising Cane's River Center Arena

Join us for Pride!

Baton Rouge Pride Fest 2025 is right around the corner! This year, it will be on Saturday, June 28 (11:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.) at the Raising Cane's River Center. We're looking for enthusiastic volunteers to help staff our table in the Resource Fair! Why should you consider volunteering at Pride?

1. Community Connection: Pride Fest brings together people from all walks of life and all over town. By volunteering, you'll connect with fellow community members and celebrate our shared diversity.
2. Impact: Your contribution matters! There are only a few churches in town that set up tables at Pride; we want to show up where we're needed and wanted, and we need your help to do so.
3. Visibility: Pride Fest isn't just a party; it's a platform for advocacy. By volunteering, you amplify LGBTQ+ voices and show your support for equality, inclusion, and love.

How do you get involved? Go to <https://forms.gle/LMbRjnE2LDawBtN59> to sign up for a one or two hour (or more!) shift. Detailed information on parking and logistics will be sent to volunteers by email the week before the fair. Thank you!

Youth Group

May Highlights:

In May we wrapped up youth group for this program year with some mini golf and a pool party to review the year and celebrate graduations. With ten kids or more at youth group regularly, we have had a great time and built a good community. Many thanks to all who have helped with youth group this year, with a special shout out to Samantha Hartmann, Alvin Raetzsch, and Madison Smith who all served as advisors for this great batch 6th-12th graders.

For the Fall:

We'll kick off youth group next year on August 17th, along with the rest of Faith Formation. We'll start out by joining in the Fish Fry just after worship. Go ahead and put it on your calendar. (And be sure to come for Blessing of the Backpacks in worship on August 10th!)
